THE 1945
CANUSARAGO

THE 1945 CANUSARAGO

Presented by the SENIORS of MUNCY HIGH SCHOOL, Muncy, Penna.

FOREWORD

* * *

This issue of the CANUSARAGO, made possible by the seniors and undergraduates of Muncy, is an expression of our desire to preserve for our students and renew for our graduates their school day memories. In these pages you will find your fun, your sorrows, your work, and your play. These are the memories you wish to keep.

We sincerely hope that these pages will succeed in recalling to you the real spirit of Muncy High School.

MEANING OF CANUSARAGO

"Canusarago" was an aboriginal name for what is now called Muncy Creek and is the earliest name preserved and handed down to us on good authority. In 1737, Conrad Weiser, the celebrated Indian interpreter and guide, reported this name as it was pronouncd by the Indians of his generation. In proper interpretation of the syllables of the Iroquoian dialect, he had the assistance of the Iroquois chief, Shikellimy, who was with him at the time. Weiser's journal was written in German and later translated by Dr. Muhlenburg, a man of great learning and knowledge of Indian languages. It then found its way into Schoolcraft's great work and throughout its many editions, the spelling of Canusarago still conforms to that given above.

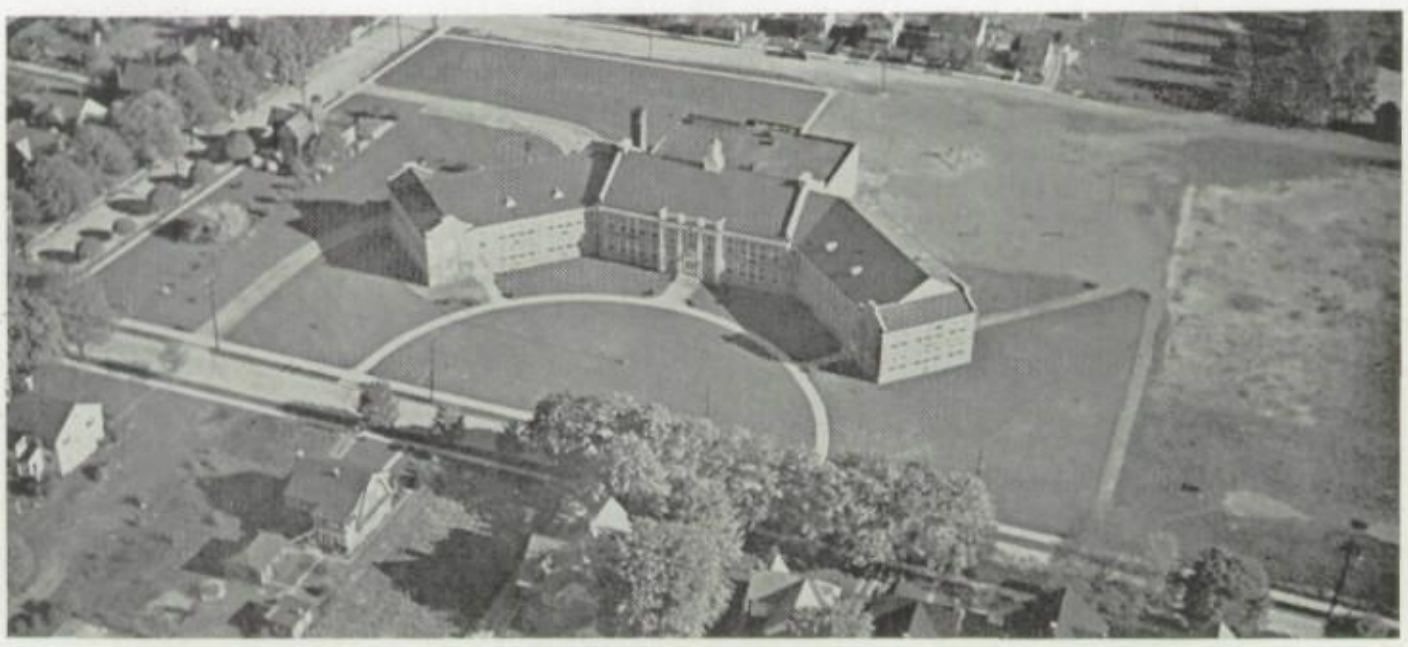
In 1755, Weiser again passed this way and upon reaching the mouth of what is now Muncy Creek, he again calls it Canusarago and writes in his journal: "And as we passed Canusarago, where a town now is," and again, speaking of the inhabitants, "They are chiefly Showones (Shawanees) and Chickasaws. There are about 20 men in the town when they are all at home." Evidently upon his first visit, the village-site on the rock to the north of the Creek's mouth had been unoccupied. It was now tenanted by a mixed population from various roving tribes. While the name of this town in Weiser's day was Iroquoian (indicating a previous outpost settlement) it doubtless was originally a Susquehannock town with a name now lost to us.

The quotation above is dwelt upon as the term Canusarago, in the Iroquois language, signifies a "Town on a Rock or a high place. Those acquainted with the character and lay of the land at "the point" will readily see the application of this description. The deduction is, that the Iroquoian town on this rocky height gave its own name to the creek.

In 1768, the first surveys were made in the valley, at which time the beautiful name of Muncy was definitely attached, first to Muncy Manor, then to the Creek, to Samuel Wallis' plantation, to the Fort Muncy, to the Valley and lastly in 1826, to the present town of Muncy and the almost equally beautfiul name, Canusarago, was forgotten. It was not that there was anything in the name Muncy to characterize any of these except that a tribe of Indians called Muncies, Monseys, or more correctly Minsies, was found there, temporarily residing, at the time that the pioneers came. This was not their permanent home. They were here under the direction and orders of the powerful Iroquoian Confederacy.

T. Kenneth Wood, M.D.

Hail to Alma Mater dear,
Spread her fame in accents clear,
Shout her glory to the skies,
Tell the praise of dear old Muncy,
May our hearts be ever true,
To the colors White and Blue
Muncy High School, here's to you,
Hail to Alma Mater, Hail.



History of Muncy-Muncy Creek Grade and High School

Lawrie and Green, of Harrisburg, were the architects chosen to erect our new school building. It was to have 30 classroom units, a slate roof gabled, a separate gymnasium and auditorium to be of stone construction.

The central division of the building was to house facilities for community activities such as the auditorium, the stage, the gymnasium and the central office. The east wing of the building was to house the elementary grades one to six—the primary school occupying the first floor and the intermediate school the second floor. The west wing was planned to accommodate the junior-senior high school, grades 7 to 12; the junior high school occupying the lower floor and the senior high school the upper. The plans also contained a spacious library with work room set apart, a home economics laboratory, an industrial arts laboratory, a physics and chemistry laboratory, a biology laboratory, a kitchen, a cafeteria room, a gymnasium with balcony, and auditorium with stage, storage rooms, and activities room, a supply room, a health room, a teachers room, and an office with a vault, a double commercial room, a locker room for girls and one for boys, besides an adequate number of regular classrooms. The building contains 56 rooms, practically every enclosure that is entered by means of a door.

The cornerstone was laid without ceremony on November 24, 1931. The building, which was begun in October, 1931, was completed ready for delivery to the hands of the Muncy School Association and the Muncy-Muncy Creek Joint School District on July 5, 1932.

Lawrie and Green have once more submitted tentative plans for future additions to our building. These plans represent three separate additions. One on the west end of the building would include a vocational shop, a new shop for the agricultural boys program, a cafeteria, and four additional rooms on the second floor. The proposed addition to the central part of the building would carry out the enlargement of the present gymnasium, and provide seating space for 1,000 spectators. The gymnasium would also have moving partitions that would allow girls' physical education classes, and boys' classes to be in session at the same time. The auditorium would be extended to the rear to provide for a community room primarily intended for Boy and Girl Scout meetings, and other groups of the community who have need of this type of meeting place. On the east end of the building the addition would provide for six additional elementary class rooms.

These plans have been prepared by the architect not with a view of immediate construction but rather to be ready when the need arises for more space.

DEDICATION

* * * *

The senior class of 1945 dedicates this issue of the CANUSARAGO to the boys and girls of Muncy who are serving the armed forces of our country in World War II. We especially want to honor those who have paid the supreme sacrifice, the number now totaling twenty-one.

We want to express our deepest and fullest appreciation to this school board. Their co-operation with the faculty and the faculty with the students has made it possible for us to enlarge our activities. Through their efforts our school boasts a very fine staff of teachers. May their fine work continue to be a great help to the students who will follow us.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1945, with purely usefulness in mind, make public our last will and testament. In these our last moments as a class unit, with silhouettes of future careers and the draft board lurking in the background, as we await our departure into the unknown, we leave the following treasures:

To the faculty as a whole, our sincere thanks for the guidance we have received throughout the last twelve years and to the said group our sympathy for the effort that went to waste.

To Mr. Crist we leave our intelligence and understanding of Trig., to use in future classes. They'll need it.

We, the girls of " '45," give in all good faith cushions to the school for the Home Economics Room.

To Mr. Musial we will a new idea for grading papers; with this comes peace and quiet.

To the Juniors, we will our unique talent for obtaining unscheduled study periods.

Our sedate and dignified ways we give to the Sophomores; employ them more than we did.

Seeing a great opportunity for helping someone we bequeath all this is left behind to the Freshman Class.

Robert Bieber bequeaths to Tommy Heilman his success and ability in the Agriculture Course.

Ray Confer leaves to his little brother, Larry, his basketball ability, hoping he will use it as Ray did.

John Hall leaves his ability to get along with his teachers to "Cork" Egli.

Jack Hester gives to "Eddie" Bower his ability to go steady with one girl at least two months at a time.

Lola Bennett leaves her speed and accuracy on the typewriter to Shirley Stroup.

Janet Dugan bequeaths her gift as "Cheerleader" to Jackie Bennett hoping she will cheer future teams to victory.

Vernon Kepner leaves to "Corky" Dugan his industrious ways in Math and Drawing Class.

Shirley Hartman leaves her beautiful tan and school girl complexion to "Dot" Riley.

Hammond Derr gives to "Tut" Heincleman his physical prowness.

Raymond Shook leaves to Ken Rohm his weekly appointment at Nettie Mae's beauty parlor.

Mary Funston leaves her place as a pin-up girl of the armed service to Alida Kerstetter.

To Lorma Egli, Ruth Hall leaves her ability to hook classes when they interfere with her ideals of life.

Margaret Ann Goodenow leaves to "Yo Yo" Yoder her southern accent.

"The Chere Tea Room Three" bequeath their ability to be very rushed on Friday noons to all forthcoming Seniors.

Mary Jane Moran is presented by Lillian Feigles her knack to come to school regularly: She sincerely hopes it doesn't go to waste.

Shirley Gortner sends with complete directions her diet and exercises for slimness to Rena Houseknecht.

A little black book containing anonymous jokes is passed from Mivian O'Dell to Eddie Bower.

To Barbara Funston, Ruth Bogart wills her bookkeeping knowledge: Use it wisely, Barb.

Jean Eckman donates her tactfulness in being only feminine one in radio class to Dorothy Holdren.

Hoping they are used, Ila Hacker leaves her shy and retiring ways to Barb Kahler.

Helen Fry gives her seat on the bus to Dizzy Reed, while Shirley Musser wills what it takes to get a ride home every noon to Oh! just anyone.

Bill McLaughlin bequeaths to Bungy Hagerman his little red book entitled "Modern Wolf" containing lines and tactics which enables one to have four or five steady girls at once without getting into trouble.

Ruth Hall leaves her Kate Smith voice to Betty Michael.

Evelyn Printzenhoff wills to Ruth Houseknecht the ability to get a boy friend.

To Fred Simons, George Temple wills his great height.

Franklin Woodside wills to LeRoy Karscher the ability to go with the out-of-town girls.

Beatrice Mincemoyer wills to any girl left in the High School who may care for a F. F. A. the ability to land him.

Charles Starr wills his ability to sing with the sextet to anybody that may take his place.

To Betty Louise Yoder, Betty Renn wills her good luck of hooking school and getting blue slips.

To Leon Temple, Charles Stroup leaves his place in the school as Frank Sinatra.

To the future basketball players, Raymond Shook leaves his place on the bench.

To Cork Egli, Howard Pewterbaugh wills all the flattery from the girls and hopes he makes good use of it.

Elaine Vetter leaves to Dean Landis her speed in typing and shorthand dictation, knowing that he is badly in need of it.

To Dawes Little, Charles Rickolt leaves his perfect stance in football.

To Shirley Stroup, Betty Painton wills her job in the A & P store.

To Dorothy Riley, Janet Sharrow wills her ability to play Cupid to everybody else and still not land a man herself.

Phyllis Pegg wills to Gladys Campbell her nice long finger nails which she never seems to have.

Carolyn Zarr wills to Sally Smith her great love for cultural music under the heading of boogie woogie.

Evelyn Smith leaves to all the future lovers of sailors the technique to receive from them a ring for the third finger, left hand, knowing there are many lovers of sailors in the Junior and Senior High.

Martha Secules wills her quiet ways to Bungy Hagerman, knowing he is badly in need of someone's will to this effect.

To Dizzy Reed, Gene Smith leaves his ability to be a great wrestler.

Lynn Persun leaves to anybody taking the Commercial course his great love and admiration for Bookkeeping.

Ruth Sones leaves to the lonesome girls the ability to have a boy friend although there is a war on, and have him near. Now, girls, don't we all wish that we lived on a farm where there was a nice hired man.

Pearl Walker wills to all broken hearted girls, such as Gladys Campbell, the ability to get a diamond, have it once, give it back and now has it again.

Mary Elizabeth Waldron leaves to all the boys with their crew hair cuts, her nice long hair.

Alma Smith wills to Beverly Akers her great love for Tut.

Marvene Zettle wills to Mary Jane Moran her ability to hang on to one guy until she is sure she has another one landed.

LaRue Lauchle wills his ability to be bashful with all the pretty girls around the school to Ben Sevison.

Betty Reece wills her ability to love one soldier to Cynthia Kiess.

Marlin Kleckner leaves to the future Muncy High boys the ability to get a date with Beverly Akers which he has failed.

Mary Ellen Shook wills to the future Chemistry students her A's.

Bob Long bequeaths his knowledge of philosophy and the higher arts to Bill Reeder.

Rosie Holmes bequeaths to "Gabby" Youtz her straight "A" report card. Need it, Gabby?

And now, as time passes on, we, the Class of 1945, do hereby declare that the foregoing testament has been signed, sealed and officially approved by the Senior High School Faculty.

The Class Prophecy of 1945

The year 1955, the scene, a remodeled Chere Tearoom. The war is over and as I enter I find my old friend, Mrs. McCarty, formerly known as Lola Bennett. After I had my dinner she sat down with me to talk about the town. She said that in the ten years that had passed Muncy had expanded and now was a thriving little city. It has its own little airport and thriving business section. After explaining all the details the subject switched to our class.

We find Bob Long playing football at Pittsburgh, still asking the coach to put him in and he'd tear them apart.

Jake Akers and his famous smoke puff pitch is star pitcher of the Chippewa Tech.

We find Jack Hester and John Hall running a bachelors' home out in Pennsdale.

Charles Harrison and Shirley Musser are happily married and Charles is now the manager of Byerly Meat Market.

Charles Starr is now singing on the radio on National Barn Dance every Saturday night.

Ray Confer and Janet Dugan are married and live out near Clarkstown. Ray, Jr., has the same features of his father (over grown limbs).

Hammond Derr is now one of the big owners of Weis Chain Stores.

Robert Hofer and Elaine Vetter are married. Robert is now a draftsman at Sprout & Waldron Co.

We find LaRue Lauchle radio technician at Station WRAK in Williamsport.

Franklin Woodside is taking over Sam Derr's Garage. His motto is "You wreck 'em, we'll fix 'em."

Howard Pewterbaugh, the glamor boy, took up Physical Education at Pennsdale. He is now coaching in Muncy.

Charles Stroup liked the South Sea belles so well that he decided to live down there. He is running a plantation and fishing on the side.

Dr. Bill McLaughlin is living up on Quarry Road. He runs his own hospital for pets. His assistant is Mary Elizabeth Waldron.

Harold Kilgus has taken over his fathers milk route and is still courting Barb. Funston.

Mary Ellen Shook is now assistant to Mr. Muscial in a laboratory at Washington.

Phyllis Pegg is now the social staff of the Screen Guild Magazine.

We find Marvin Bardo farming successfully east of Muncy.

Ruth Bogart is now secretary of the Office of Price Administration in Washington.

The small town of Muncy now has its own airport, situated between Quarry Road and Musser's Lane. Of course this is operated by Raymond Shook and Marlin Kleckner.

Betty Renn still plays around in the telegraph office. Knows all, sees all, and hears all. Nice position for a sailor's wife.

We find Robert Bieber taking over Pop Girven's place as agriculture instructor. Robert and Beatrice Mincemoyer have bought their farm out around Chippewa.

Charles Rickolt, Muncy's play boy, finally returned to the home town. New York society girls became too much for him and he returned to his ever faithful Nan.

Shirley Hartman is still playing around at the Bake Shop. Russ came home from the Navy and they still visit the Historical Garden on moonlit nights.

Lillian Feigles and her husband, Mac Lowe, have settled down on Carpenter Street.

Romain Watson and Helen Fry are living in the rural districts of Pennsdale.

Martha Hoffman and Alma Smith have finished their nurses' training, which they are using for their own use.

Harriet and Charles Windor are now living at East Muncy in their own home.

Roselise Holmes finished her college education and returned to the male population of Muncy. Wonder who the lucky fellow will be.

Ruth Hall finally made up her mind between the Navy and the Civilians. Baker won and they have a lovely home on Glade Run. The only trouble is high water and old loves.

Mary Funston returns to Muncy, every once in a while, still looking for Less who decided to stay in the Pacific.

Margaret Ann and Cam are still acquiring knowledge in the form of books. It won't be long now until the wedding bells will ring. The last 10 years have really gone fast, but too slow for them.

Lynn Persun is now the editor of a newspaper in Muncy, "The Muncy News," and his secretary is Ruth Sones.

Pauline Kepner and Leon Houseknecht are at Clarkstown on a farm raising sheep.

Pearl Walker and Oscar Ellis have finally decided to make a go of it.

Carolyn Zarr is now married to Bob Ault, and is now living in Alaska.

Shirley Gortner has been working in the Sylvania and now we find she has been promoted to the Personnel Office, where she is secretary to the head boss.

Along Glade Run in a big mansion we find George Temple and Beverly Lowe living a real happy life.

Martha Secules is chaperon of the campers that come to Lake Makoma.

As we look further into the class we find Betty Reece married to Howard Denny, a former soldier of the U. S. Army, living in Chippewa on a chicken farm, and their neighbor is Evelyn Printzenhoff and her husband, Bill Crofutt, a former Seabee of the U. S. Navy.

On the bank of Lycoming Creek we find Jean Eckman has built a hospital in which she cares for only handsome men. Her daily patient is Jack Ellis.

Ila Hacker, soon after graduation, became the secretary of a promising Williamsport attorney. Now, she is married to a soldier and living in Green Pastures, Wolf Run.

Evelyn Smith is living out in Colorado, where her husband, Jim Arthur, is a Forest Ranger.

Betty Painton is now manager of the A & P. It took her nearly five years without a raise in pay, but she finally received the advancement.

Melvin Carpenter and John Richey have decided to make the Navy their career. They say they have a girl in every port.

Gene Smith has taken over his brother's meat route. One of his best customers is Marvene Zettle.

Janet Sharrow is running a home for Old Maids, situated on Musser's Lane, where they can observe all that is going on.

Vernon Kepner is running his feed mill near the mouth of Muncy Creek. Mivian O'Dell is his ever faithful secretary.

Class History of 1945

The team was brought together in the year of 1933, starting our first practice under the coaching of Miss Aura Minsker, Mrs. Mazie Dice, and Miss Martha Koons. We started our physical training early, each morning taking laps around the flag pole. We soon came to enjoy these exercise periods; of course the bottles of milk that came afterwards had no influence whatever. A rhythm band was organized, which gave Raymond Shook a start on his musical career. At the end of the year we had our first picnic at VanRensler's Park.

Our second year found us under the coaching of Miss Dunlap (Mrs. Hartman) and Mrs. May Goodenow. This year we lost a few players, Harold Catherman moving and the rest not making the team. We took part in the Tom Thumb Wedding, with the third grade. During this year we were helped over our rough bumps in mathematics by Mrs. Goodenow's devoted and tireless work.

Entering third grade we took on as our coaches Miss Mae Stahl and Miss Mary Dewald (Mrs. Elder). Miss Stahl had an ingenious device this year for our bad little boys (we had a few) adhesive tape was used to silence our talkative school mates, such as Butch Derr; also her screen beside her desk was frequently visited by such notables as Ray Confer and Martha Hoffman. We made good use of our new desks that year by promptly autographing our name and residence.

We started our fourth year with Miss Martha Berriman (Mrs. Max Frye) and Miss Betty Hafer (Mrs. Seth Schoch) as our coaches. After a very hard but enjoyable year the team hiked to the Muncy Look-Out as a rounding out of this year.

Starting our fifth year we had as our coaches Miss Brelsford and Miss Emily Jane Waltman (Mrs. Leroy Voneida). This year the team was introduced to the process of fractions which we all soon learned to enjoy. Many of us joined the Fifth and Sixth Grade Glee Club and took part in a singing program for P. T. A.

As we neared the halfway mark in our school career we took on Mrs. Frances Kschinka and Miss Mary Ellen Waldron to do our coaching. Again many of us joined the Glee Club, and many of us will remember the play of Stephen Foster's songs which we presented for P. T. A.

We were guided by two very good coaches, Mrs. Arthur and Miss King, in our seventh year. Mrs. Arthur introduced us to the grown-up way of higher education by taking us on a tour of the halls in the first few weeks of our new experience. One of the most bewildering new experiences were the screen assignments given out by Mrs. Arthur. We also enjoyed many assemblies and introduced ourselves in the dramatic field by putting on short plays for them.

In the eighth grade our coaches were Miss Fannie Wood (Mrs. Rodney Brown) and Miss Esther Stewart (Mrs. Verus Weaver). This year we were sorry to lose a member of our team, Paul Dougherty. The girls put on a gym exhibition under the supervision of Mrs. Weaver. Those who had Mr. Traupane ought to remember some of his tall stories.

Ninth grade found us with Mr. Delos Bitler and Mr. Philip Traupane. We welcomed into our team many new students from the country schools. We had 97 students in our class. We put on a quiz program under the supervision of Mr. Bitler.

Our promotion exercises at the end of this year's journey had a patriotic theme. Hammond Derr read the Bible and Reverend Holmes led the entire grade in prayer. Our theme was "When I Look at the Flag," read by Ray Confer, Elaine Vetter, Robert Bieber, Harriet Waltman, Charles Harrison, Ruth Miller, Jack Hester, Evelyn Printzenhoff, Pauline Kepner, Melvin Carpenter, and Beverly Henninger, Elizabeth Kschinka and Gene Smith received the American Legion Award.

We officially started the quarter of the game when we enrolled in the first year of Senior High School. Ours was a large team and we required three coaches: Mr. Musial, Mr. Crist and Miss Anna Civvits (Mrs. Brasuell) took over the care of us. To many of us, the highlight of the year was the band and glee club concert, held for the first time this spring. We gained two girls but lost two boys this year. Mary E. Waldron and Ruth Hall entered and Robert R. Baker and Grant Nuss joined the Navy. None of us will forget the skit we put on under Mr. Crist. As Henry Aldrich, Lester Neitz gave Ezra Stone some strong competition.

Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Brasuell were our coaches for this next to last year of school. Ila Hacker and Martha Secules became members of our team, while Milvin Carpenter and John Richey left for the Navy and Lester Neitz joined the Army. We held a class party at Hershey Park, but the effects of gas scarcity were already being felt and few attended this picnic.

We aimed the ball for the goal post in this, our Senior year, and it has been a busy one—full of scoop deadline and class dues. The girls' minds have been preoccupied with plans for college, a career or marriage, while the boys merely speculated upon the date of induction. Mr. Derr, Mr. Whetstone, and finally Mr. Clendenin had charge of 12A—Mrs. Ernest Engelhardt had 12Z. Our class play, "As You Like It," under the direction of Mr. J. C. Clendenin, gave us many hours of work, but none can deny the enjoyment we derived from it. We all regret that many of our boys were unable to enjoy this class day and graduation with us (Marvin Barto, Harold Kilgus, John Hall, Charles Harrison, Robert Hofer, Franklin Woodside, Charles Stroup, and Lynn Persun) but we hope they will never forget their 12 years at Muncy High School

FINIS

Class Poem of 1945

We are the Class of '45
About to enter the portals
Of a life new to us—
And taking with us
All we learned.
Our education is complete
And now we must meet
The flaws before us
With the courage that
Others on this day have faced.
Our determination and hopes are bright,
Success will be our goal.

Motto—Success Our Goal.

Class Colors—Red and White.

Class Flower—Red and White Roses.

Class Pledge of 1945

Now that we have attained the final and winning touchdown, we the Class of 1945, in order to bring peace to our community, and country, do hereby promise to do everything possible to better ourselves and the generations to follow us. We will meet with determination, the life before us with the ideals that have been taught to us by our coaches, and carry out the duties of a worthwhile, decent, democratic citizens.

May God help us in this our pledge.

The Parent-Teachers Association was first organized in Muncy in the year 1914. This organization has always been a very active one. They provided playground equipment, sponsored dances and parties, supplied funds for tonsilectomies, and glasses, and many other helpful necessary deeds.

The P. T. A. had a very successful year under the able leadership of Mrs. James Hitesman. She has served as president for three years and during that time a beautiful rostrum and chairs were purchased for our school stage. These pieces of furniture match the spinet piano purchased for the school by the P. T. A. during the presidency of Mrs. Lucetta Anderson.

It has always been the aim of this organization for better home and school co-operation and community betterment.

The Class of 1945 wishes to take this opportunity to thank the Parent-Teachers organization for their many kindnesses throughout our school life and to wish them continued success in all their ventures.

The Student Council was first organized in 1943 for the purpose of getting the students' ideas of how they would like to have things done.

Officers were elected by the council members made up of elected delegates sent from each grade of the high school. These delegates meet once a month on an appointed date to conduct a business meeting. Mr. Engelhardt attends these meetings as faculty supervisor.

It was the task of each delegate to get the suggestions and opinions of their home room students on any subject that was being questioned at the council.

A fine service flag was purchased by the Student Council, which was placed above the auditorium door in the main corridor.

The Class of 1945 wishes the Student Council continued success in the coming years.

Director—Miss Hocker.

The Fifth and Sixth Grades Glee Club is the oldest musical organization in our school, and is also thought of as one of the best glee clubs we have in our school today.

Miss Hocker, their director, has been working very hard to keep up the quality of this glee club, and her efforts are appreciated by the entire school body.

The pupils are picked out of the fifth and sixth grades who have the best voices, and then they are welded into a glee club of three parts, first soprano, second soprano, and alto.

This glee club supplies the vocal entertainment for many things around the school, such as singing for P. T. A. and for the Baccalaureate services for the seniors, and for many other events.

The Band, organized in 1941, had a very successful year under their present director, Miss Emanell Whitenight. Besides playing for various school functions and activities, it is also asked frequently to put on a concert in other communities.

Because the band takes on a military air, competition is very keen with every member trying very hard for a higher rank.

Miss Whitenight has put in a lot of time and hard work to assure the school a band of which it could be proud, and her efforts are appreciated by every pupil in the school.

This year, as in the past, the band climaxed the year by putting on a concert, which went over very successfully.

Just before the concert the band had to take a great loss when Robert Hofer, the veteran bass horn player, was taken into the navy.

Superviser—Mr. Girven

The agriculture department started in 1936 and has expanded to a very efficient and successful organization under the supervision of Mr. Girven since 1939.

This chapter has taken numerous prizes for its group project work. There is one other such project in Pennsylvania.

We have had three boys receive the Keystone Farmer Degree. This in itself is quite an honor. The Keystone Degree is the highest award one can receive in the state of Pennsylvania. The boys who have received this degree are James Springman, Robert Beiber, and Marvin Barto.

During the past four years they have acquired the following equipment: Two tractors, four wagons, one grain drill, one corn planter, two plows, one harrow, one disc harrow, one cultipacker, one pick-up hay baler, and one weeder.

In 1941 they had ten acres of vegetables and five acres of field corn. In 1942 they had 12 acres of vegetables, 22 acres of field corn, and six acres in hay. In 1943 they had 140 acres of field crops and in 1944 185 acres of field crops, and in 1945 they plan to cultivate still more land.

The members of the Yearbook Staff have made this Yearbook a success through tireless hours of work in collecting data, making arrangements for pictures, and securing a publisher.

This is the third yearbook to be published in the history of the Muncy High School.

Much credit is to be given to Mr. Engelhardt, the Supervising Principal, for his generosity, encouragement and counsel, and for his co-operation in providing data and information.

We also appreciate the generous willingness and invaluable aid of the school faculty.

We are especially grateful for the care and effort on the part of the Yearbook Staff, and we trust it will be cherished through the years to come as the legacy of the Class of 1945.

The achievement of our Scoop Staff in keeping up with former precedent of editing an up-to-date and informing school paper, is to be commended.

It meant long hours of extra work and effort on the part of each member of the staff to produce a Scoop that is read and liked by everyone.

There has been several new features added to the Scoop making it both entertaining and interesting.

By editing a fine school paper, it serves to bring to the parents of the student just what is being accomplished in our school. This helps to promote interest and co-operation between the school and the parents.

We wish to thank the Scoop Staff and Mrs. Engelhardt as Faculty Adviser, who served until Mr. Clendendin came, and also the teachers for contributing to our school paper.

This year the school produced "As You Like It," a somewhat more ambitious undertaking than usual. But the industry and enthusiasm of the cast and all others concerned more than justified the attempt.

Attempting to produce this play in the Elizabethan manner, Mr. Clendenin, the director stressed costuming, rapidity of pace, and a carefree reading of the lines rather than scenery. In addition, the lovely songs and the help of the band did much to further that illusion.

Of especial interest was the use of a band of "scene shifters," dressed as pages, who moved and supported the panels or screens which, with their stylized designs, were used to suggest backgrounds and setting.

The entire production might be said to lie in the field of the experimental theater.

When we started our 1945 football season under Coach I. B. Nolan and James Harder, the prospects of the team looked good. The 12-7 victory over Danville started the season with bright prospects.

The morale of the team was high as was shown when we met our toughest opponents.

Montgomery, our traditional rival, resumed football after a three-year lull. They met us on our home field. We avenged their 13-12 defeat of 1941 by winning on a rain-soaked field by the score of 18-6.

In the final game of the season at Jersey Shore, the following seniors played for the last time: Howard Pewterbaugh, Harold Kilgus, John Hall, Charles Rickolt, Charles Stroup, Jake Akers, Marlin Kleckner, Robert Long, and Jack Hester.

Our basketball season opened with a schedule of 19 games, of which 12 were league and 7 were non-league. Our team, coached by Mr. Harder, won the first half championship by being undefeated in six league games. The most thrilling game which we won, 23-22, was against Montgomery on their home floor. In the last half we won five straight league games. Then in the final game we lost to Montgomery (who were also undefeated the last half) by the score of 36-26 giving Montgomery second half championship.

In the playoffs we met Montgomery on our home floor for the first game. We won by the score of 36-25. In the second game at Montgomery we lost 40-37. In the third and final game Montgomery defeated us on the Williamsport floor by the score of 33-27.

This year we had, for the first time in our school history, a Junior High basketball team coached by Mr. Ward Myers. Coach Myers, who put the team through their paces, formerly coached at Shamokin and Bradford High Schools.

Though handicapped by size, the team won 7 of their 13 games for a very commendable record.

If we are able to keep having Junior High teams in coming years, the policy should add strength to future Varsity teams by providing competitive experience for the boys of Junior High school years.

RECORD

Kingston	41	Muncy	6

Forty Fort	45	Muncy	5
Lewistown	16	Muncy	29

When Mr. Schuyler, former heavyweight wrestler of Bloomsburg State Teachers College, came here this year, the outlook for wrestling was promising.

We obtained a small schedule of four meets: Kingston, Lock Haven, Forty Fort, and Lewistown. All meets except Forty Fort were at home.

The team which lacked experience through not having wrestling last year looked good, and showed great improvements when the season closed. This was shown in the final match of the season with Lewistown, whom we beat by the score of 29 to 16.

Four men won two or more matches out of the four-game schedule which was very good. Robert Likens won at the Lock Haven match and the Lewistown match. Maurice Bieber was the winner at Forty Fort and also won the Lewistown match. George Martin won against Lock Haven and Lewistown. Our team captain, Howard Pewterbaugh, had the best record, winning three out of four matches, beating Kingston, Lock Haven and Lewistown men. The only match he lost was to a Forty Fort man by one point.

Four men, George Martin, William McLaughlin, Maurice Bieber, Howard Pewterbaugh, entered the State Meets at State College, Martin and Bieber winning the first match but losing out in the semi-finals. Pewterbaugh won all of his matches until he came to the finals, where he lost to the State Champion of last year. McLaughlin lost out in the beginning.

HUMOR

After a Town Hall meeting in a midwestern city, a woman saw Alexander Woollcott standing alone in the lobby. Impulsively she went up to tell him of the pleasure his lecture had given her. "And," said this lady who has grown grandchildren and freely admits having passed 70, "I was encouraged to speak to you because you said you loved old ladies."

"Yes," replied Woollcott, "I do. But I also like them your age."

When meat rationing first began, a farmer reported to his board that he had several hundred pounds of beef in storage. To a letter demanding why he had so much on hand he replied: "It was necessary to kill the whole steer at one time."

Definition of a flirt: A woman who believes that its every man for herself.

A little boy and girl who lived next door to a nudist colony found a knothole one day. The little girl took the first look. "What are they?" the little boy asked. "Men or women?"

"I don't know," she replied, "they haven't any clothes on."

A French farmer engaged in his spring planting was interrupted by a couple of Nazis swaggering through his field. "Go ahead and sow," scoffed the Germans, "we'll do the reaping."

"I hope so," replied the farmer. "I'm sowing hemp."

Formula for success in Washington: "Shoot the bull, pass the buck and make seven copies of everything."

The worst thing about history is that every time it repeats itself the price goes up.

My sister got herself a second lieutenant—the first one got away.

Sailor to pretty girl: "Your rigging is all right. How are you manned?"

A theater manager in San Francisco took the public into his confidence, put up on the marquee:

Want ad in a Pennsylvania paper:

"Woman, 21, would like job running elevator in office building. Has no experience and would like to begin in low building."

In San Diego, O. P. A. investigators found a landlord charging roomers $2.50 a week for the privilege of using the front door.

Filling out a questionnaire on emergency housing for civilian defense, an old lady of 76 came to the space marked "Marital Status," and in a firm hand wrote, "Fine."

A submarine crewman, after a long siege at sea, met his commander on the way to their hotel one hibiscus-scented night in Hawaii. "Ain't it funny, sir," he remarked, "how far you can get behind on women and how quick you can catch up?"

Running into her former suitor at a party, a girl decided to snub him. "So sorry," she murmured when the hostess introduced him, "but I didn't," said the unabashed ex-suitor, "but you certainly tried hard enough."
